EXCELLENT SHOWING.
Kentucky's State Fair Premiums Compare Favorably With Any Other State.

It is interesting and encouraging to those who have at heart the welfare of the Kentucky State Fair to make a comparison between the amounts offered in premiums by it and the amounts offered by other State Fairs.

The provisions for horses outside of the heavy classes will amount to $6,500 at the Kentucky State Fair, while premiums of $500 are offered for the heavy classes, coach horses and hackneys. Of the $6,500, something like $2,500 will be given to thoroughbreds, making classifications for this division the most liberal ever offered at any State Fair and insuring the greatest exhibition of thoroughbreds ever seen in America. The classifications for beef cattle total $4,000, divided as follows: Shorthorns, $1,500; Aberdeen-Angus, $1,000; Herefords, $700; Polled-Durhams, $400; Galloways, $300; Red Polled, $200. The dairy cattle classes will amount to something like $1,500, with Jerseys heading the list, and provisions for Holsteins, Ayrshires and Guernseys. One thousand dollars will be offered for mules and jack stock and $1,200 each for sheep and swine.
These classifications show up favorably in comparison with any others in the country.

The Illinois State Fair, which is one of the richest and best held anywhere, makes the following provisions: For light horses, including thoroughbreds, roadsters, saddlers, carriage horses and ponies, $3,155; for heavy horses, $1,270; coach horses hackneys and Morgans, $1,090; jack stock and mules, $1,880; sheep, $2,104; swine, $1,774. For beef cattle it offers a total of $4,860, divided as follows: Shorthorns, Herefords and Aberdeen-Angus, $1,099 each; Galloways and Red Polled, $795 each. The provisions for dairy cattle, total $3,300. Of this amount $700 is given to Shorthorns, Holstein-Friesians, Ayrshires, Brown Swiss and Guernseys, each; $600 to Dutch Belted; $100 to farmers' cow class and $100 for a sweepstakes of all dairy breeds.

The Ohio State Fair offers $1,333 for all classes of horses outside of coach and draft, and $1,683 for the latter two. Its total for cattle is $4,529, with $1,144 from the different cattle associations. Of this total the beef breeds will receive $2,562, as follows: Short horns, $600; Herefords, Devons, Aberdeen-Angus, Galloways, Polled-Durhams and Red Polled, $327 each. Of the $1,967 allotted to the dairy breeds $327 goes to each of the following: Holsteins, Dutch Belted, Jerseys, Guernseys, Ayrshires; $282 is allotted to the Brown Swiss and special offerings of $50 are made for fat cattle. The offerings for sheep are $1,618, for swine $1,508.

The Missouri State Fair offers $1,605 for heavy horses, coach horses and hackneys, and all other horses $1,250; for mules and jack stock, $500. Its total for beef cattle is $2,700, with $900 from the various cattle associations. The various breeds are allotted as follows: Shorthorns, $725; Aberdeen-Angus, $675; Herefords, $625; Galloways, $525 and a sweepstakes for various breeds amounting to $150. The total for dairy cattle is $1,196. For Jerseys and Holstein-Friesians each $400, Guernseys and Brown Swiss each $198. The classification for the amount to $352 and for swine $750.

At the Nebraska State Fair the provisions for draft and coach horses total $1,385 and for all other classes of horses $326. To beef cattle $2,037 is allotted as follows: Shorthorns, $632; Herefords, Aberdeen-Angus and Galloway, $405 each; Red Polled, $198. For dairy cattle the offering is $1,075, for swine $1,332, for sheep $1,177.

The Iowa State Fair makes provision for horses outside of coach and heavy classes of $1,252, for draft and coach horses $3,819, for mules $149. Its provisions for beef cattle are especially liberal, amounting to $5,250, in addition to $1,158 allotted by the various cattle associations.
The classifications for the different breeds of cattle follow: Shorthorns, $876; Herefords, $869; Aberdeen-Angus, $889; Galloways, $889; Red Polled, $866; Polled Durhams, $420, a special lot of premiums open only to Iowa exhibitors, amounting to $328, and a special sweepstakes of various breeds of $285. One thousand and four hundred dollars is allotted to dairy cattle; $650 for the Holsteins and Jerseys each and $100 being reserved for milk tests. Swine will receive $2,097, sheep $1,344.

In Indiana provisions for horses outside heavy classes and coach horses are $2,149 and for the latter $1,910. The beef cattle total the goodly sum of $6,047, dairy cattle $1,520, sheep $2,326, swine $1,228.

A consideration of these facts shows exactly the comparative standing of the Kentucky State Fair with the other big State Fairs of the country and offers every reason for encouragement to those who have the success of the fair at heart.

CINCINNATI MERCHANTS' AND MANUFACTURERS' EXPOSITION.

The reputation of Cincinnati as a festival city will be ably maintained this year, by the holding of an exposition at Music Hall Building, under the auspices of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Exposition Association which has for several seasons conducted such enterprises in the east with notable success. The most up-to-date methods known to festivals are being employed for the present venture which as already secured a numerous class of exhibits not only from Cincinnati itself, but from various outside cities, thus enabling the visitor to have a glimpse of the latest methods of the world at large. The date chosen for the Exposition is one that appeals especially to all classes of people, from September 11th to 23d inclusive, when the coolness of the autumn season and the rush of summer duties are concluded. Although squarely commercial in its intention, the coming Exposition will present a number of attractions and will easily come under the head of amusements, while the street fair exhibits will be entirely excluded. However, there is a most telling way of interesting the public in the newest things going, and there will be seen at Music Hall such uncommon things as collections of armour from the Government Department of War and Navy, a coining machine turning out exposition souvenir medals the exact size of a $20 gold piece, practical demonstrations of scientific preparation of food, a Baby Incubator where the little new babies are nursed into life and strength.
A demonstration of the practical utility of the flying machine combines the attractiveness of instruction and amusement. The little folks will be delighted to make the acquaintance of beautiful Jim Key, the most wonderful horse in the world, who is so highly thought of by his owners that he is not assigned to an ordinary stall, but will be given a special room to himself on the upper floor of Mechanics Hall, the north wing of the Music Hall Buildings. Special excursions will be run into Cincinnati during the course of the Exposition at greatly reduced rates as the hearty co-operation of the railroads has been promised to the enterprise, which will be without a rival in the way of industrial expositions.

SOME NOTES BY THE WAY.

In our "Notes By The Way," of last week, we stated that Mr. John E. Miles' brother William, died in the West house, it should have been his son, William. His brother William died at Camden Point, Mo., 1852. His brother, Samuel I. Miles, was killed in the famous Green River Bridge fight, July 4, 1864, serving as a cavalryman in the Southern Army. Mrs. Mary H.
Maxwell, died in the house on St.
Clair street, recently torn down, in 1888. Mr. Miles' first wife died in the "Hunt property" (just removed to make room for the new State Capitol) in 1876.

the Sufferer from Kidney Troubles.

No peace for the kidney sufferer—Pain and distress from morn to night.
Get up with a lame back, Twinges of backache bother you all day.

night.

misery.

Get at the cause—cure the kidneys.
Doan's Kidney Pills will work the cure.

They're for the kidneys only—Have made great cures in Frankfort.

W. T. Frazier, proprietor of Frazier's Candy Kitchen, 43 St.
Clair St., residing at No. 5 Second St., says: "The efficiency of Doan's Kidney Pills was amply proven in my case. I suffered from backache a great deal, often so severely that I could not turn in bed. In the morning when I got up, it was a common thing to feel lame and sore in the back. Being on my feet so much of the time in my store no doubt tended to aggravate the trouble. Anxious to find some relief and a permanent cure if possible, when I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills, and saw them so highly recommended by people living near by, I went to J. W. Gayle's drug store and got a box. It was a glad surprise to me to find that after taking them for a day or two they were removing the pain. I continued the treatment, and by the time I had finished the box, the trouble was entirely removed.
Up-to-date, I have felt no recurrence. It is a pleasure to me to endorse this preparation."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
